Print your name and the name of your school on the lines above.
The test has three parts. Parts I and II are in Booklet I; Part III is in this booklet.

Part III is based on several documents.

Part III A contains the documents. Each document is followed by one or more questions. Write your answer to each question in this test booklet in the space provided.

Part III B contains one essay question based on the documents. Write your answer to this question in the separate essay answer booklet, beginning on the first page of the booklet. You will have 1½ hours to answer the questions in Booklet 2.

DO NOT TURN THIS PAGE UNTIL YOU ARE TOLD TO DO SO
Part III

DOCUMENT-BASED QUESTION

This question is based on the accompanying documents (1–6). This question is designed to test your ability to work with historical documents. Some of the documents have been edited for the purposes of the question. As you analyze the documents, take into account both the source of each document and any point of view that may be presented in the document.

Historical Context:

In 1939, the world entered one of its darkest periods when World War II began. In 1942, American troops officially entered the conflict. Although the war was fought abroad, it had a great impact on the American home front. Women experienced permanent changes in their lives. People across the country felt a greater sense of nationalism, as well as a fear of foreigners. World War II had lasting effects on many aspects of American life.

Task:

Using information from the documents and your knowledge of social studies, answer the questions that follow each document in Part A. Your answers to the questions will help you write the Part B essay, in which you will be asked to:

• Discuss four ways World War II affected American life at home

TURN THE PAGE FOR PART A ➔ Part A

Short-Answer Questions

 Directions: Analyze the documents and answer the short-answer questions that follow each document in the space provided.

Document 1

1a Who does the figure in the picture represent? [1]

__________________________________________________________________________

Score

b What does the woman mean when she says “We Can Do It”? [1]

__________________________________________________________________________

Score
2a  What is wartime rationing?  [1]

Score

b  Name one item rationed during World War II.  [1]

Score

c  Why was wartime rationing necessary?  [1]

Score
3a  What are the people in this photograph collecting?  [1]

Score

b  Why was this event a common occurrence during World War II?  [2]

Score
4a What are the mother and daughter in the poster doing?  [1]

_____________________________________________________

Score

b Why was this activity encouraged during World War II?  [1]

_____________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________

Score

5a What was an internment camp? [1]

______________________________________________________________

Score

b Why were Japanese Americans put into this type of camp? [2]

______________________________________________________________

Score
6a How many United States military personnel died in World War II? [1]

__________________________________________________________________

Score

b Why are no United States civilian deaths indicated on the chart? [1]

__________________________________________________________________

Score

c State one effect these death statistics had on American life. [1]

__________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________

Score
Part B
Essay

Directions: Write a well-organized essay that includes an introduction, several paragraphs, and a conclusion. Use evidence from at least four documents in the body of the essay. Support your response with relevant facts, examples, and details. Include additional related information.

Historical Context:

In 1939, the world entered one of its darkest periods when World War II began. In 1942, American troops officially entered the conflict. Although the war was fought abroad, it had a great impact on the American home front. Women experienced permanent changes in their lives. People across the country felt a greater sense of nationalism, as well as a fear of foreigners. World War II had lasting effects on many aspects of American life.

Task:

Using information from the documents and your knowledge of social studies, write an essay in which you:

- Discuss four ways World War II affected American life at home