I should be grateful if you would bring this declaration to the knowledge of the Zionist Federation.

...The territory was plagued with chronic unrest pitting native Arabs against Jewish immigrants (who now made up about a third [of] the population, owning about 6% of the land). The situation had become more critical with the displacement of hundreds of thousands of Jews fleeing the Nazi persecution in Europe. Some six million Jews were killed in the Holocaust during World War II.

The UN set up a special committee which recommended splitting the territory into separate Jewish and Palestinian states. Palestinian representatives, known as the Arab Higher Committee, rejected the proposal; their counterparts in the Jewish Agency accepted it.

The partition plan gave 56.47% of [the British Mandate of] Palestine to the Jewish state and 43.53% to the Arab state, with an international enclave around Jerusalem. On 29 November 1947, 33 countries of the UN General Assembly voted for partition, 13 voted against and 10 abstained. The plan, which was rejected by the Palestinians, was never implemented....

6. Based on this chart, state one result of the failure of the 1947 United Nations plan for partition in the Israeli-Palestinian region. [1]
The Muslim League

Not all Indians agreed with the approach or the goals of the Congress Party. Many Muslims were uneasy with what they felt was the religious element of the Congress Party. Gandhi’s strategies were seen by many Muslims to be Hindu-based—for example, his use of fasting and non-violent protest. More than merely pro-Hindu, the Congress Party was seen as anti-Muslim.

Increasing sectarianism led even moderate Muslim leaders to grow wary of working with Congress. Some feared that a representative democracy, like Great Britain’s, would not work in India. They believed the Hindu majority would overwhelm the Muslim minority. Some also felt that Muslims had fallen behind Hindus in formal education, which was now based upon English instead of Persian. Muslims also participated far less in commerce, industry, and local government.

7 According to this excerpt, what is one reason some Muslims were distrustful of the Congress Party? [1]
8 Based on this map, state one impact of the partition of India. [1]
A week after the partition of 15 August 1947, which gave birth to India and Pakistan, the Himalayan territory of Kashmir, with its Muslim majority, was occupied and divided into an Indian part (Jammu and Kashmir) and a Pakistani part (Azad Kashmir), leaving an unsettled territorial dispute between the two countries. Since then, there have been two armed conflicts (in 1965 and 1999) and numerous clashes between Indian and Pakistani forces.

This is an excerpt from an interview with Mohammad Sadiq, a Kashmiri hotel manager. The hotel is located in Kargil in the Indian-administered area of Kashmir.

I have been running the Siachen Hotel in the town of Kargil for the past 17 years. It was inaugurated [opened] in 1986.

Business this year [2002] has been the worst ever because of the border tension between India and Pakistan. There have hardly been any foreign tourists and we had many people calling us from overseas to cancel their bookings.

This is a major transit point for mountaineers who enjoy trekking in the Himalayas. But this year the tourists have kept away and we have been wiped out.

Since the Kargil conflict between India and Pakistan in 1999 things improved a bit. Last year tourist traffic picked up. But not this year.

We desperately need India and Pakistan to sort things out once and for all. There has been too much violence and we need to put an end to it quickly.

Things are particularly bad for us because we are right on the frontline.

We are at the receiving end of Pakistan's heavy shelling and it has destroyed our lives.

Every time there is an increase in tension between the two countries, we come under heavy bombing.

We have to leave our homes, our belongings, our lives. It disrupts us and we have suffered as a result….
