REGENTS HIGH SCHOOL EXAMINATION

UNITED STATES HISTORY
AND
GOVERNMENT

Tuesday, January 23, 2001 — 1:15 to 4:15 p.m., only

The last page of the booklet is the answer sheet. Fold the last page along the perforations and, slowly and carefully, tear off the answer sheet. Then fill in the heading of your answer sheet.

When you have completed the examination, you must sign the statement printed at the end of the answer sheet, indicating that you had no unlawful knowledge of the questions or answers prior to the examination and that you have neither given nor received assistance in answering any of the questions during the examination. Your answer sheet cannot be accepted if you fail to sign this declaration.

DO NOT OPEN THIS EXAMINATION BOOKLET UNTIL THE SIGNAL IS GIVEN.
Part I (55 credits)

Answer all 48 questions in this part.

Directions (1–48): For each statement or question, write on the separate answer sheet the number of the word or expression that, of those given, best completes the statement or answers the question.

1. The Declaration of Independence contributed to the development of democracy by 1 guaranteeing trial by jury to all men
   2 allowing women to take part in government
   3 indicating that people are the source of power
   4 providing for Presidential elections every four years

2. The Great Compromise at the Constitutional Convention of 1787 contained a provision for
   1 the direct election of Senators
   2 judicial review
   3 regulation of commerce
   4 a bicameral legislature

3. “... an equality [of votes in the Senate] will enable the minority to control ... the majority.”
   — James Wilson
   Pennsylvania delegate,
   Constitutional Convention of 1787

Which conclusion can be drawn from this statement?
   1 Delegates from the smaller states should have opposed the ratification of the Constitution.
   2 Some delegates believed that equal representation in the Senate would give smaller states too much influence.
   3 Some delegates believed the term of office for Senators would be too long.
   4 Delegates from the smaller states favored a legislature in which representation was based on population.

4. Separation of powers and federalism are constitutional principles that
   1 establish limits on the powers of government
   2 ensure legislative and executive equality
   3 increase the power of the national government and decrease the power of the states
   4 settle conflicts between state and national authorities

5. The ratification of the Bill of Rights in 1791 illustrated a commitment to 1 limiting the power of state governments
   2 expanding the power of Congress
   3 protecting individual liberties
   4 safeguarding citizens against excessive taxation

6. Which aspect of the Presidency is part of the unwritten constitution?
   1 consultation with members of the Cabinet
   2 election under the electoral college system
   3 role as Commander in Chief
   4 duty to inform Congress about the state of the Union

7. The creation of the first political parties in the United States resulted from a controversy over
   1 declaring independence from Great Britain
   2 recognizing women's equality
   3 expanding slavery into the newly acquired territories
   4 interpreting the Constitution

8. In the early 1800's, a series of Supreme Court decisions made under the leadership of Chief Justice John Marshall led to 1 a weakening of the power of corporations
   2 a strengthening of the power of the Federal Government
   3 the abolition of slavery
   4 guarantees of free public education for minorities

9. The United States Supreme Court decisions in Gideon v. Wainwright and Miranda v. Arizona extended the rights of the accused to 1 a speedy trial
   2 reasonable bail
   3 legal counsel
   4 an impartial jury
11 Territorial expansion during the first half of the 19th century contributed to
1 balancing the Federal budget
2 escalating the debate over slavery
3 weakening the traditional policy of isolationism
4 improving the living conditions of Native American Indians

12 “The great rule of conduct for us in regard to foreign nations is, in extending our commercial relations to have with them as little political connection as possible."

— George Washington, Farewell Address, 1796

According to President Washington, the interests of the United States would be best served by 1 placing tariffs on imported goods
2 forming military alliances with other nations
3 avoiding trade agreements with foreign nations
4 maintaining a foreign policy based on neutrality

13 Presidents are prohibited from running for a third term of office by
1 an amendment to the Constitution
2 the unwritten constitution
3 an Executive order
4 a law of Congress

14 Since 1823, which United States policy has limited foreign influence in the Western Hemisphere?
1 the Eisenhower Doctrine
2 popular sovereignty
3 imperialism
4 the Monroe Doctrine

15 Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Lucretia Mott were best known for their struggle to 1 prohibit the manufacture and sale of alcohol
2 form labor unions
3 secure the right of women to vote
4 expose government corruption
16 The main reason for the passage of the Homestead Act in 1862 was to provide for
1 farms on the Great Plains
2 national parks
3 irrigation of desert lands
4 reservations for Native American Indians

17 During Reconstruction, President Andrew Johnson tried to incorporate most of President Abraham Lincoln’s plan for
1 granting suffrage to former slaves
2 readmitting the Southern States into the Union
3 increasing the power of the North over the South
4 punishing the secessionist states

18 What was a major result of the Reconstruction Period?
1 The political and economic rights of women were expanded and strengthened.
2 The power of the states increased at the expense of the Federal Government.
3 Racial segregation in United States schools ended.
4 The 13th, 14th, and 15th amendments were added to the United States Constitution.

19 After the Civil War, the poll tax, literacy test, and grandfather clause were used to ensure that
1 all citizens exercised the right to vote
2 poor people were given equal voting rights
3 the voting rights of most former slaves were denied
4 the elderly in the South could vote in Federal elections

20 What was the main reason the United States did not limit immigration during most of the 19th century?
1 Political parties wanted to gain new voters.
2 Most immigrants arrived with large amounts of capital to invest in American industries.
3 The expanding economy needed a supply of cheap labor.
4 Immigrants were more willing to serve in the military than native-born Americans.

21 According to the theory of laissez-faire capitalism, prices of products are determined by the
1 interaction of supply and demand
2 cost of producing the products
3 government
4 bankers

22 One reason big business often employed court injunctions against labor unions during the late 1800’s was that
1 unions insisted on the open shop in the workplace
2 most efforts at collective bargaining failed
3 right-to-work laws encouraged court actions
4 many tactics used by unions were illegal at that time

23 One advantage of a corporation over an individually owned business is that the corporation has 1 a closer relationship between labor and management
2 easier access to investment capital
3 unlimited legal liability for damages
4 exemption from prosecution under antitrust laws

24 During the late 19th century, which governmental action was most strongly supported by farmers in the United States?
1 regulation of railroads
2 reduction of the Federal income tax
3 limits on the amount of money in circulation
4 establishment of a minimum wage for farm laborers

25 The reforms advocated by the Progressive movement were intended mainly to
1 expand the civil rights of African Americans and Native American Indians
2 reduce restrictions on immigration
3 increase the spirit of patriotism throughout the nation
4 promote political and economic change through government intervention
26 “I have always been fond of the . . . proverb: ‘Speak softly and carry a big stick; you will go far.’ ”
—Theodore Roosevelt

This philosophy was used by President Roosevelt primarily to
1 deal with problems of racial segregation
2 conduct his foreign policy
3 expand the western frontier
4 win the Spanish-American War

27 In the early 20th century, which policy for the advancement of African Americans was favored by W.E.B. Du Bois and the newly formed National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP)?
1 mass migration to northern cities
2 immediate action to end segregation and win equal rights
3 establishment of a new republic in Africa for freedmen
4 emphasis on economic advancement over social equality

28 A primary function of the Federal Reserve System is to
1 prevent abuses in stock market trading
2 preserve competition in business
3 provide a stable supply of money and credit
4 insure savings account deposits in member banks

29 The groups that comprised the majority of immigrants to the United States between 1890 and 1920 were called “new immigrants” because they
1 were the last immigrants to enter the United States before World War I
2 settled in frontier areas of the country
3 stayed only for a short time before returning to their homelands
4 came from different regions of the world than most of the groups who came before 1890

30 In the 1920’s, the growth of the Ku Klux Klan and the passage of restrictive immigration laws reflected a growing American belief in
1 nativism
2 socialism
3 imperialism
4 internationalism

31 After World War I, the United States demonstrated its return to a policy of isolationism by
1 lowering tariffs on imports
2 refusing to sign the Treaty of Versailles
3 promoting the Marshall Plan
4 liberalizing immigration policies

32 The “clear and present danger” ruling of the United States Supreme Court in Schenck v. United States established that
1 third political parties must suspend their activities during wartime
2 accused persons must be advised of their rights
3 due process of law does not apply to the military
4 certain circumstances may limit the exercise of free speech

33 After the election of 1932, a friend told President Franklin D. Roosevelt that if he succeeded he would go down in history as the greatest American President. Roosevelt replied, “Yet if I fail, I may be the last one.” This response reflected President Roosevelt’s belief that the
1 Constitution limited him to two terms in the Presidency
2 military was seriously considering a takeover of the government
3 Great Depression threatened the people’s faith in democracy
4 American people were opposed to major changes in the role of government

34 The “dust bowls” described by John Steinbeck in The Grapes of Wrath had the greatest impact on
1 residents of urban slums
2 workers in factory sweatshops
3 plantation owners in the rural south
4 farmers on the Great Plains

35 President Franklin D. Roosevelt’s plan to increase the size of the Supreme Court reflected his desire to make the Court
1 sympathetic to New Deal programs
2 committed to African-American rights
3 independent of Congress
4 responsive to business
The Truman Doctrine was originally designed to
1. stop the proliferation of nuclear weapons
2. contain communism by giving aid to Greece and Turkey
3. use the United Nations as a tool to eliminate threats posed by the Soviet Union
4. rebuild Southeast Asia by extending economic aid

United States participation in the United Nations and the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) after World War II demonstrated that the United States
1. recognized the importance of international cooperation
2. returned to the policy it followed after World War I
3. believed in the principle of hemispheric isolation
4. embraced a postwar policy of strict neutrality

In foreign affairs, the domino theory was mainly applied to
1. United States involvement in Latin America
2. Japanese expansion in East Asia
3. the communist threat in Southeast Asia
4. the movement for national independence in Africa

Which conclusion can be drawn from a study of the Vietnam War?
1. The policy of containment was successful.
2. Foreign policy can be altered by public opinion.
3. The power of the President is reduced during wartime.
4. Military superiority ensures military victory.

Which conclusion about the civil rights movement of the 1960's is most valid?
1. Groups in the movement had common goals but different methods for attaining them.
2. Civil disobedience failed to bring about any legislative changes.
3. The movement began with violent protests but ended with peaceful demonstrations.
4. The movement failed to inspire other groups to work for change.

When Martin Luther King, Jr., spoke of his dream that the United States would reach a time “. . . when all of God's children, black men and white men, . . . will be able to join hands . . .,” he was expressing a desire to
1. create a separate nation for African Americans within the United States
2. unite all churches into one religious faith
3. establish religious freedom for African Americans
4. replace racial segregation with an integrated society

A major reason that most newer buildings are accessible to people with disabilities is that
1. the number of people with disabilities has dramatically increased in the past decade
2. a building that is accessible to people with disabilities is less expensive to build
3. people with disabilities no longer face discrimination in American society
4. legislation has been passed that recognizes the rights of people with disabilities

The concept of comparable worth, or equal pay for equal work, is most closely associated with the movement to
1. promote equality for working women
2. enact child labor laws
3. gain equality for African Americans
4. increase labor union membership

Which heading would be most appropriate for the outline below?

I. ____________________________
   A. Congress passes the Alien and Sedition Acts.
   B. President Abraham Lincoln suspends habeas corpus.
   C. President Franklin D. Roosevelt orders internment of Japanese Americans.
   D. Senator Joseph McCarthy begins hearings on identifying Communists.

   1. Changes in Economic Policy
   2. Federalism and the Constitution
   3. Checks and Balances at Work
   4. Threats to Civil Liberties
46 What has been the greatest success of third parties in United States political history?
1 winning Presidential elections
2 having their ideas adopted by the major parties
3 securing appointments to the President’s Cabinet
4 replacing one of the two major parties

47 How does the present-day United States economy differ from the nation’s economy of 1900?
1 Immigrants are no longer a source of labor.
2 Today’s government plays a less active role in the economy.
3 The United States is less dependent on oil imports.
4 The growth of service industries is greater today.

48 • Workers paid weekly wage of $2.00
• Immigrants work for lower wages
• Unsafe conditions in tenements and sweatshops
• Attitude of “captains of industry” toward workers’ problems

In a history textbook, the items on this list would most likely appear in a chapter about the working conditions in the 1 colonial period under British rule
2 South before the Civil War
3 age of big business from 1865 through the early 1900’s
4 economic recession following World War II

45 Which statement best expresses the main idea of the cartoon?
1 The United States has returned to an open immigration policy.
2 Current immigration policy favors those with financial security.
3 Today’s immigrants need to have an advanced knowledge of technology.
4 Current immigration policy supports the spirit of the Statue of Liberty.

Base your answer to question 45 on the cartoon below and on your knowledge of social studies.

Part II

ANSWER ONE QUESTION FROM THIS PART. [15]

1 United States Supreme Court decisions have dealt with major issues in United States history.

Supreme Court Decisions

- Marbury v. Madison (1803)
- Dred Scott v. Sanford (1857)
- Korematsu v. United States (1944)
- Brown v. Board of Education of Topeka (1954)
- Engel v. Vitale (1962)
- Roe v. Wade (1973)

Choose three of the Supreme Court cases listed and for each one chosen:
- Identify the issue in the case
- Describe the Court’s decision in the case
- Discuss an impact of the decision on the United States [5.5.5]
Throughout United States history, branches of the United States Government have used powers granted to them by the Constitution to deal with specific issues. Listed below are several citations from the Constitution that grant powers to branches of government.

Citations from the Constitution

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Citation</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>“The judicial power of the United States shall be vested in one Supreme Court...”</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>“The Congress... shall propose amendments to this Constitution...”</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>“He [the President] shall have power, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, to make treaties...”</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>“The Congress shall have power... To regulate commerce with foreign nations, and among the several states...”</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>“The Senate shall have the sole power to try all impeachments.”</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>“Congress shall have power... To make all laws which shall be necessary and proper for carrying into execution the foregoing powers, and all other powers vested by this Constitution in the government of the United States...”</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Choose three of the citations listed and for each one chosen:

- Identify and discuss a historical example of how a branch of government used its power to deal with a specific issue [Use a different example for each citation chosen.]
- Discuss one impact on the United States of the branch’s use of its power [5,5,5]
Part III

ANSWER TWO QUESTIONS FROM THIS PART.

3 In United States history, certain groups have been denied opportunities for some of the reasons listed below.

Reasons
- Age
- Ethnic background
- Gender
- Race
- Religious beliefs

Choose three of the reasons listed and for each one chosen:
- Identify a specific group that has been denied opportunities for that reason
- Show how that group has been denied opportunities
- Describe a specific historical action taken by government to improve opportunities for that group  [5,5,5]

4 The United States has engaged in military conflicts around the world to achieve the foreign policy goals listed below.

Goals
- To acquire territory
- To protect the right of freedom of the seas
- To halt communist aggression
- To protect overseas American economic interests
- To defend the rights and freedoms of oppressed peoples

Choose three of the goals listed and for each one chosen:
- Identify a specific military conflict in which the United States became involved to achieve that goal [Use a different conflict for each goal chosen.]
- Describe the circumstances surrounding United States involvement in the conflict
- Evaluate the extent to which the United States was successful in achieving that goal [5,5,5]
Some Presidents of the United States have made statements concerning serious problems or issues they faced. Some of these statements are given below.

“... with malice towards none, with charity for all, with firmness in the right, as God gives us to see the right, let us strive to finish the work we are in to bind up the nation’s wounds.”

Abraham Lincoln
Second Inaugural Address (March 4, 1865)

“So first of all, let me assert my firm belief that the only thing we have to fear is fear itself—Nameless, unreasoning, unjustified terror, which paralyzes needed efforts to convert retreat into advance... our greatest primary task is to put people to work. This is no unsolvable problem if we face it wisely and courageously.”

Franklin D. Roosevelt
First Inaugural Address (1933)

“The final decision of where and when to use the atomic bomb was up to me. Let there be no mistake about it. I regarded the bomb as a military weapon and never had any doubt that it should be used.”

Harry Truman
Memoirs (in reference to events of 1945)

“. . . your imagination, your initiative, and your indignation will determine whether we build a society where progress is the servant of our needs, or a society where old values and new visions are buried under unbridled [unrestrained] growth. For in time we have the opportunity to move not only toward the rich society and the powerful society, but upward toward the great society.”

Lyndon B. Johnson
Speech at University of Michigan (May 1964)

“I hereby return without my approval [veto] House Joint Resolution 542—The war powers resolution. While I am in accord with the desire of the Congress to assert its proper role in the conduct of our foreign affairs, the restrictions which this resolution would impose upon the authority of the President are both unconstitutional and dangerous to the best interests of our nation. . . .”

Richard M. Nixon
Veto Message to Congress (1973)

“. . . I simply was not convinced that the country wanted to see an ex-President behind bars. We are not a vengeful people; forgiveness is one of the roots of the American tradition. And Nixon, in my opinion, had already suffered enormously. . . . But I wasn’t motivated primarily by sympathy for his plight or concern over the state of his health. It was the state of the country’s health at home and around the world that worried me. . . .”

Gerald Ford
Autobiography (in reference to events of 1974)

Choose three of the quotations and for each one chosen:

• Identify and discuss the problem or issue referred to in the quotation
• Using specific historical information, explain how the President attempted to solve the problem or deal with the issue

[5,5,5]
6 At various times, Congress has acted to try to solve economic problems.

Congressional Acts

- Alexander Hamilton’s Financial Plans (1790–91)
- Interstate Commerce Act (1887)
- Sherman Antitrust Act (1890)
- Social Security Act (1935)
- Fair Labor Standards Act (minimum wage act) (1938)
- Medicare Act (1965)
- Family and Medical Leave Act (1993)

Choose three of the congressional acts listed and for each one chosen:

- Identify and describe an economic problem that the act was intended to solve
- Discuss the extent to which the act was successful in solving that economic problem

7 In United States history, national issues have often created controversy.

National Issues

- Writing of the United States Constitution
- Expansion of slavery into the territories
- Growth of labor unions
- Regulation of alcoholic beverages
- Limits on immigration
- Censorship of the Internet
- Affirmative action programs

Choose three of the issues listed and for each one chosen:

- Describe the historical background of the controversial issue
- Explain the opinions held by two opposing sides of the issue
