This booklet contains Parts 2 through 4 of the examination. Part 1, Speaking, has already been administered.

When your teacher tells you to, turn to the last page of the booklet, which is the answer sheet. Fold the last page along the perforations and, slowly and carefully, tear off the answer sheet. Then fill in the heading of your answer sheet.

When you have completed this written test, you must sign the statement printed at the end of the answer sheet, indicating that you had no unlawful knowledge of the questions or answers prior to the test and that you have neither given nor received assistance in answering any of the questions during the test. Your answer sheet cannot be accepted if you fail to sign this declaration.

Chère Monique —

Par cette petite carte nous venons te remercier pour tes photos. Elles sont très bien prises, et en plus avec un côté humoristique. J’espère que ton premier mois de travail c’est bien passé.

En espérant te revoir l’été prochain en France.

Grosses bises,

Marc

Part 4

Directions (31–33): Choose two of the three writing tasks provided below.

Your answer to each of the two questions you have chosen should be written entirely in French and should contain a minimum of 30 words. Your answers must be written in your own words; no credit will be given for a response that is copied or substantially the same as material from other parts of this examination.

Place names and brand names written in French count as one word. Contractions are also counted as one word. Salutations and closings as well as commonly used abbreviations are included in the word count. Numbers, unless written as words, and names of people are not counted as words.

Be sure that you have satisfied the purpose of the task. The sentence structure and/or expressions used should be connected logically and demonstrate a wide range of vocabulary with minimal repetition.

31 You have just visited a friend who moved into a new home that you like very much. In French, write a letter to your pen pal about your friend’s new home. You may wish to include:
   • what your friend’s old home is like
   • why your friend’s family moved
   • a description of the new home
   • something you particularly like about the new home
   • information about the neighborhood
   • your feeling about your friend moving

32 Your French class is planning a trip to a French restaurant. In French, write a journal entry about a French restaurant you like. You may wish to include:
   • the name of the restaurant
   • the type and size of the restaurant
   • where the restaurant is located
   • information about prices
   • foods you like at this restaurant
   • other things you like about this restaurant

33 In French, write in your journal about a movie you want to see. You may wish to include:
   • when you are going to see the movie
   • what the movie is about
   • who the main characters are
   • your reasons for wanting to see the movie
   • where the movie is playing
   • how much the movie costs
Answer all questions on this test. Use only black or blue ink on this answer sheet.
