This booklet contains Parts 2 through 4 of the examination. Part 1, Speaking, has already been administered.

When your teacher tells you to, turn to the last page of the booklet, which is the answer sheet. Fold the last page along the perforations and, slowly and carefully, tear off the answer sheet. Then fill in the heading of your answer sheet.

When you have completed this written test, you must sign the statement printed at the end of the answer sheet, indicating that you had no unlawful knowledge of the questions or answers prior to the test and that you have neither given nor received assistance in answering any of the questions during the test. Your answer sheet cannot be accepted if you fail to sign this declaration.

Part 4

Directions (31–33): Choose two of the three writing tasks provided below.

Your answer to each of the two questions you have chosen should be written entirely in Italian and should contain a minimum of 30 words. Your answers must be written in your own words; no credit will be given for a response that is copied or substantially the same as material from other parts of this examination.

Place names and brand names written in Italian count as one word. Contractions are also counted as one word. Salutations and closings as well as commonly used abbreviations are included in the word count. Numbers, unless written as words, and names of people are not counted as words.

Be sure that you have satisfied the purpose of the task. The sentence structure and/or expressions used should be connected logically and demonstrate a wide range of vocabulary with minimal repetition. [10]

31 You are an exchange student in Italy. In Italian, write a letter to your host parents telling them your plans for the day. You may wish to include:

- where you are going
- who else will be going
- why you want to go
- what you will be doing
- other activities and locations
- when you will return

32 An Italian-speaking student will be moving next door and wants to know about the school you attend. In Italian, write in your journal what you plan to tell the new student about your school. You may want to include:

- a physical description of the school
- when classes begin and end each day
- what subjects are offered
- what activities are offered
- your opinion of your teachers
- what is offered for lunch in the cafeteria

33 You have recently made a new friend. In Italian, write in your journal a description of your new friend. You may wish to include:

- the person’s name and age
- what the person looks like
- where the person lives
- what the person’s personality is like
- the person’s likes and dislikes (sports, hobbies, chores)
- how you met the person
- when you met this person
