This booklet contains Parts 2 through 4 of the examination. Part 1, Speaking, has already been administered.

When your teacher tells you to, turn to the last page of the booklet, which is the answer sheet. Fold the last page along the perforations and, slowly and carefully, tear off the answer sheet. Then fill in the heading of your answer sheet.

When you have completed this written test, you must sign the statement printed at the end of the answer sheet, indicating that you had no unlawful knowledge of the questions or answers prior to the test and that you have neither given nor received assistance in answering any of the questions during the test. Your answer sheet cannot be accepted if you fail to sign this declaration.

The use of any communications device is strictly prohibited when taking this examination. If you use any communications device, no matter how briefly, your examination will be invalidated and no score will be calculated for you.

DO NOT OPEN THIS TEST BOOKLET UNTIL YOU ARE TOLD TO DO SO.
Part 2

Answer all questions in Part 2 according to the directions for Parts 2a, 2b, and 2c.

Part 2a

_Directions_ (1–10): There are 10 questions in this part. For each question, you will hear some background information in English. Then you will hear a passage in Italian twice, followed by the question in English. Listen carefully. After you have heard the question, read the question and the four suggested answers in your test booklet. Choose the best suggested answer and write its _number_ in the appropriate space on your answer sheet. [20]

Part 4

Directions (31–33): Choose two of the three writing tasks provided below.

Your answer to each of the two questions you have chosen should be written entirely in Italian and should contain a minimum of 30 words. Your answers must be written in your own words; no credit will be given for a response that is copied or substantially the same as material from other parts of this examination.

Place names and brand names written in Italian count as one word. Contractions are also counted as one word. Salutations and closings as well as commonly used abbreviations are included in the word count. Numbers, unless written as words, and names of people are not counted as words.

Be sure that you have satisfied the purpose of the task. The sentence structure and/or expressions used should be connected logically and demonstrate a wide range of vocabulary with minimal repetition. [10]

31 In Italian, write a journal entry about your school year. You may wish to include:
   • which subjects you like the most and the least
   • why you like or dislike these subjects
   • which subjects are the most difficult and the easiest
   • how much homework you get
   • what grades you expect in each subject

32 You are an exchange student in Italy. Everyone in the host family, including you, has household chores to do. In Italian, write a journal entry about the household chores that you do. You may wish to include:
   • the chores that you like to do
   • the chores that you do not like to do
   • when you do these chores
   • how often you do these chores
   • what chores the other family members do

33 You want to have a birthday celebration for the Italian exchange student. In Italian, write a note to your Italian club advisor describing your plans. You may wish to include:
   • the date and time of the celebration
   • what activity you wish to do to celebrate the birthday
   • where you want to celebrate the birthday
   • who you want to attend the birthday celebration
   • what refreshments you want to serve
   • suggestions for a gift
   • how you feel about celebrating this birthday
